WBO & IBF World Super Featherweight Unification navarrete vs nunez Match Content & Results Mexican Civil War.

Emanuel Navarrete triumphed yesterday through a unanimous decision in an electrifying contest held at the Desert Diamond Arena, Glendale, Arizona. Navarrete emerged victorious by decision. As a result of the victory, Navarrete held on to his WBO title and grabbed Nunez's IBF super featherweight belt to become champion of both belts.

The battle was a highly aggressive one. Navarrete imposed his will on Nunez with his weaponry volume punching and physical strength from the very start. Navarrete took Nunez the distance and won by decision.

Both Emanuel Navarrete and Oscar Valdez were at a very strong position ahead of the fight. Navarette holds the belts at three different weight classes being a veteran boxer from Mexico. Before the fight, his record was 39-2-1. Eduardo Nunez entered the boxing ring carrying the IBF championship belt and is known for his KO power. He had scored 30 wins and 1 loss in the ring and all the wins had come via knockout. Analysts were calling this a bloody all-Mexican fight, which turned out to be the case.

The event began on Saturday night, February 28, and is currently in progress or concluding depending on your timezone.
